

200 Years of New Orleans Cooking

In this delightful cookbook, Natalie V. Scott has compiled savory recipes which have filled New Orleans kitchens with delicious aromas for more than 200 years. Tempting appetizers like Oyster Cocktail-Sauce Antibes and Eggs Bernard are traditional Crescent City favorites. These are often served along with famous New Orleans soups, including Oyster Gumbo and Cream of Crab Soup. To accompany the appetizers and soups, this cookbook also includes easy-to-prepare and delicious entrees-Jambalaya, Cheese Souffle, Natchitoches, Trout Louisiane, Spanish Oysters, Creole Pork Chops, and Chicken a la King are just a brief sampling. And no meal would be complete without zesty side dishes like Creole Corn Pudding and Potatoes Bonhomme. Finally, delectable desserts, perhaps Creole Pecan Pralines or Caramel Dreams, will offer a jazzy flair to any New Orleans meal. 200 Years of New Orleans Cooking celebrates New Orleans rich culinary history, a tasty history that, with this cookbook, everyone can now enjoy.
