New York Times bestselling author Lorna Barrett presents another page-turning chapter in her Booktown Mystery series as mystery bookshop owner Tricia Miles finds out that murder is no walk in the park

While out walking Sarge, her sisters bichon frise, bookshop owner Tricia Miles is led by the agitated dog to a man lying in a gazebo. Shes startled when she recognizes Pete Renquist, the president of the Stoneham Historical Society, who appears to be suffering from cardiac arrest. When Pete later dies at the hospital, the discovery of a suspicious bruise and a puncture mark on his arm suggests he may have been murdered. Haunted by Petes enigmatic last words to her, Tricia begins to consider who had a motive to kill her friend. Did Pete take his flirting too far, only to have a jealous husband teach him a lesson? Or did he discover something in the towns historical records that his killer wanted kept secret? Tricia is determined to get to the bottom of things before someone else becomes historyFrom the Paperback edition.
