

Ivys League

By any measure, she is a success. By any measure that is, except her own. Ivy Livingstone has entree into Washington DCs political elite, lives in an exclusive neighborhood and sends her son to a sought-after private school. But her beautiful life is a gilded cage. She is independent, but alone. And unfortunately, very few men are confident enough to believe they are in Ivys league. Eli Thomason has all the confidence in the world, except when it comes to his own judgment about women. And his attraction to Ivy Livingstone proves him right. She is everything he shouldnt want: a woman above his station and beyond his means. He overreached once before and still lives with the heartbreaking consequences, so why does he find it so difficult to leave Ivy alone? And if their own baggage isnt enough, Ivy and Eli have to contend with circumstances around them that seem to confirm their worst fear: that the bond theyre beginning to build cant possibly last.
